NavQuest.com Partners with Reef Ball Foundation to Reef Ball Marine Maps

WEST PALM BEACH, FLORIDA August 29, 2007 Travel News

(PRLEAP.COM) The Reef Ball Foundation, Inc. is a 501(c) 3 publicly supported non-profit that functions as an international environmental NGO.

Their mission is to restore the world's ocean ecosystems and to protect the natural reef systems. Projects include artificial reefs, estuary restoration, red mangrove plantings, oyster reef creation, coral propagation, advice for biological recovery from disasters, erosion control (often beach erosion), and education on preserving natural reefs. NavQuest.com has done it's part, by mapping the worldwide Reefball system and making it available on:

Vice President of Sales & Marketing, Gaspare J. Marturano said, "Protecting our seas, and securing a clean healthy ocean, is an ever increasing challenge." Mr. Marturano continued, "The Reef Ball Foundation is at the forefront to meet this challenge, and we hope that our contribution to their work will help in the battle". Todd Barber Reef Ball Foundation Chairman commented, "Navquest has done it again. Linking up our worldwide artificial reef dive sites to their unique world mapping and trip planning online application that gives a list of dive sites along the planned trip, what a wonderful tool for divers."
